Grade K, Domain 8
Seasons and Weather

What's the story?

Students explore weather patterns and how they affect our daily lives. They learn about the four seasons and how weather changes throughout the year.

What will my student learn?

Students will learn key concepts about weather, including observations, recordings, and predictions. They will also learn how to use a weather log to track weather changes.

Teachers will describe key concepts and identify important characteristics of weather. They will use direct observation and hands-on activities to create a weather report.
